Quality Education Policy

FMIPH knows the importance of quality education in line with sustainable development goals and cares to do its part in this regard. In this context, it has an education policy that aims at inclusive, equal, quality education and lifelong learning for all. Our university's quality education policy in line with this goal includes the following main elements:

- FMIPH promotes inclusive, equitable and accessible quality education.
- It supports the education system that aims to develop behaviors that meet the needs of the individual and society at the maximum level.
- Carries out lifelong learning activities effectively.
- It gives importance to vocational and vocational education.
- Develops educational activities for non-university stakeholders.
